Forecast For The United Kingdom
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Saturday 13 Nov 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Many areas dry, mild and rather cloudy. Patchy night fog.

This Evening and Tonight:
Many eastern areas cloudy, with patchy hill fog and drizzle. Northern Ireland and some western mainland fringes also seeing patchy light rain. Southern Scotland, Wales and western England keeping some clearer spells, allowing patchy fog and possible grass frost.

Sunday:
Fog perhaps slow to clear locally, otherwise variable cloud and bright spells for many, just an isolated light shower. Northwest UK cloudier with occasional rain, perhaps heavy for northwest Scotland.

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Changeable in the north with occasional rain followed by sunshine and showers, accompanied by strong winds at times. Drier further south but often cloudy with patchy morning fog.
